

YOU'RE INVITED

THE STATE OF DEMOCRACY
IN THE WORLD:
Exploring Solution-Based Perspectives

A talk by Principia College
Political Science Professor
Dr. Sarah Andrews (C'07)

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 2026
2:30 P.M.

PRINCIPIA CLUB OF PHOENIX

The State of Democracy in the World: Exploring Solution-Based Perspectives

The PRINCIPIA
ALUMNI & FIELD RELATIONS
13201 Clayton Road
St. Louis, MO 63131
www.principiaalumni.org

The Principia Club of Phoenix invites you to a talk by Principia College political science professor Dr. Sarah Andrews (C'07). Dr. Andrews will share an overview of the state of democracy in the world, discuss contemporary challenges to democracy, and then turn to solutions—both individual and systemic. What is needed, and what can we do to support democracy?

Saturday, April 11 Second Church of Christ, Scientist, Scottsdale

Doors Open: 2 p.m. 10180 N. Hayden Rd.

Program: 2:30–4 p.m. Scottsdale, AZ 85258

Register: principiaalumni.org/phoenix

Or contact: Rose Mary Mets at rosemarymets@gmail.com | 602.320.8910

Janet Richter at hrichter4@cox.net | 602.418.9542

Principia Club Members $10 | Nonmembers $15 | Students Free

About our speaker: Dr. Andrews is a faculty member in Principia College's Center for Civic and Global Engagement and holds a PhD in foreign affairs from the University of Virginia with an expertise in comparative politics.

*The same talk will be given in Tucson on Sunday, April 12 at 12:30 p.m.
Learn more at principiaalumni.org/tucson.*

All are welcome!